Salvo Iavarone- President of Confindustria

Title

The Characteristic ancient medieval hilltop Castle-town's are great investments!

Description:

The ancient hill top villages "Borghi" in Italy have an important historical value and many are being abandoned from the younger generations, Iavarone presents the government incentives for those that create interesting projects to revitalizing their economy through the digital enhancement perfect for smart working and storytelling, revitalizing them into unique cultural, spiritual and artisan hubs for experiential touristic and hospitality centers that could be attractive even internationally, and great ROI's for investors.

Alexa Fast- President of Italian Luxury Shopping e-Marketplace

Title

A digital Arch of Noah to save and sell the unique Italian excellences worldwide with blockchain for authenticity and value

Description:

The first e-commerce marketplace dedicated exclusively to MADE IN ITALY EXCELLENCES, with the mission to assist those irreplaceable unique Italian workmanships that the whole world admires for their craftsmanship and quality and enabling them to be sold digitally assisting them through a digital transformation journey both for their communication and sales but also in the virtualization to allow virtual fitting, just in time customization and personalization and implementation of the blockchain and NFTs.

All you can desire from Italy from a handmade Murano glass vase to emerging designers and artists, to those hundred years legacy fashion houses and jewelers, handcrafted furniture new and ancient, and all those unique things that are not accessible through ordinary luxury mass market distributors, "All you desire" even custom-made yachts and very high-end real estate will be available on the platform in the elite members area.

Lelio Gavazza- VP of sales of Bulgari
